

Health & Medicine Policy Research Group
Presents:

The Chicago Forum for Justice in Health Policy:

Housing Justice for Health Equity

Health & Medicine is a part of the Chicago Housing Justice League (CHJL), a coalition of 37 organizations focused on advancing a set of principles for Chicago's next five-year housing plan. Join us for this opportunity to:

- Hear from Chicago officials leading the planning process
- Learn about the principles of the CHJL
- Hear from advocates about in-progress development of the five-year housing plan
- Discuss how the health sector can be a stronger force for influencing equitable housing policies in Chicago

Date: Mon., Aug 27

Time: 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Location: 33 North LaSalle, The Vault Conference Room

Registration: Sliding scale, $0 available

*Thank you to our co-sponsors The Lawyers'
Committee for Better Housing*

Health & Medicine
POLICY RESEARCH GROUP

Chicago Housing
Justice League

Lawyers' Committee
for Better Housing
Advocating for Chicago Tenants

Speakers and panelists include:

Frank Avellone, Senior Attorney and Policy Coordinator, Lawyers' Committee for Better Housing

Byron Sigcho, former Executive Director, Pilsen Alliance

Leah Levinger, Executive Director, Chicago Housing Initiative

Christian Diaz, Housing Organizer, Logan Square Neighborhood Association

Jacky Grimshaw, Vice President of Government Affairs, Center for Neighborhood Technology

Questions? Contact Health & Medicine at info@HMPRG.org or call 312-372-4292

Register online at <http://www.hmprg.org>